9. Questions

Peace:

We proposed part
of Non-aggression,

Better relations
with France.

We shall have peace with Japan but we have not succeeded in getting part of Non-aggression.

Harmonize the two proposals.

broken down. Very pale & ill crowds of people.

New factories going
up. Went past nephtgas factory. stopped to talk.

Scant. Terrible. No chickens to eat. We have to go all way to Moscow to get bread & then they only give us 2 kils & we have to pay 3 rubles kils. How can a poor man do that?

We have no
potatoes left.

"The cattle has nearly all died. The horses also.

that life became a burden.

Women came & started crying. "They're killing us. In my village there used to be 300
cows & now only 30.
The horses have gone,
died. How can I feed
us all."

Ma: "I have a family of 10 people. How can they live."

"... and the kulaks!

Look at what the calls kulaks. Just working peasants who have a cow or two. They're murdering the peasants,
sending them away.
Oppression, oppression, oppression.

Father: - Signs indeed,
when they were robbed,
whole country of bread,
when people were dying
of hunger everywhere,
when the situation
will be worse still.

The workers will be too hungry to work - these agents. They've cleared country of horses."
